NOTES

1. A Pre-Tenancy Determination will tell you the maximum rent which Housing Benefit could meet for the property. It does not tell you how much Housing Benefit you will get. This will depend on your other circumstances (for example, your income and the size of your family).
2. If you are single and under 25 years of age it is more likely that your maximum rent will be restricted to the average cost of non self contained accommodation in the area to which you are thinking of moving. This restriction will apply from 7th October 1996. If you get a Pre-Tenancy Determination before that date but take up the tenancy on or after that date, the Pre-Tenancy Determination may not be valid.
3. You will need to claim Housing Benefit separately, once you have received the Pre-Tenancy Determination and have decided that you want to take up the tenancy. You can get a Housing Benefit claim form from your local Housing Benefit Office.
