The notice must be displayed in a place where it can be conveniently read by members of the public from the exterior of the premises.

Secondly, by publishing a notice in a local newspaper one occasion during the period of 10 working days starting on the day after the day on which the application was submitted to the licensing authority.

Within 7 days of the application being made, notice of the application on the prescribed form must also be given to the relevant responsible authorities: Please refer to the list of responsible authorities for further details of the notification requirements for the various types of application.
